and advancing the quality of people's lives. We work to achieve this by developing the resources (talent and capital) to help people of all ages and situations confront and overcome obstacles so that they can improve their lives. We focus on seven strategic challenges and operate multiple programs to address these pressing human needs. We serve our community in these seven areas: Food and Nutrition, Housing and Homelessness, Child and Youth Development, Senior Empowerment, Community Transportation, Home Heating, Efficiency, and Safety, and Community and Economic Development. Through our programs, we foster sustainable results through practical, comprehensive approaches to social and economic challenges.

PART III LINE 4A Housing: (Expenses $1,237,729 including grants of $46,253) (Revenues $870,802)

HRDC's Housing initiative works across all levels of housing security, from homelessness to homeownership. HRDC's Housing programs work to ensure that every member of our community can afford to have and preserve place to call home, whether it is in the form of emergency shelter, transitional housing, affordable rentals, rental subsidies, down payment assistance, or home repairs. HRDC incorporates its community development and strategic planning initiatives into a housing strategy to meet both the needs of the community and our customers. HRDC's housing initiative encompasses the Warming Center, Amos House, the Home to Stay Program, Resource Property Management, the Road to Home Program, and the Home Rehabilitation Program offering services from housing stabilization to homebuyer education to home safety repairs. HRDC's housing initiative comprises 5% of all agency expenditures and operations. HRDC's housing programs provide: 24 beds of emergency shelter, 24 units of transitional housing, 400 rental assistance vouchers, 271 units of affordable housing, homeless prevention and placement assistance for more than 500 households annually, homebuyer education to 300 households annually, down payment assistance to 26 households annually, and home safety and repair services to 20 households annually.

HRDC's Youth Initiative focuses on early childhood development and services for at-risk youth between the ages of 16-21. Our Head Start Program provides for the healthy development of children and the strengthening of families through education, health, nutrition, mental health, and disability services. Our Youth Development Program provides opportunities, focused direction, and inspiration for achievement to prepare youth to live up to their full potential and drive their own path to success, providing access to career exploration, academic and/or GED completion, employment skills and placement.

The youth initiative comprised 10% of agency activities and expenditures and is funded at 82% Health and Human Services, 9% Workforce Investment Act, 4% Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, and 5% American Recovery and Reinvestment Act Funds.

Senior Empowerment: (Expenses $204,968 with Grants of $0) (Revenues $203,026)

HRDC's Senior Empowerment Initiative addresses quality of life and independence in the home for many of our area seniors. With door to door transportation to medical and other appointments, meaningful volunteer opportunities, supplemental foods, and in-home health care, we work to provide each and every senior with wrap around services that enable them to remain self-sufficient and be engaged with the community.

Senior Empowerment comprised 1% of total agency activities and expenditures and is funded at 23% Title III, 6% Contract Income, 5% Gallatin County, 2% Donations, 3% Consumer Contributions, 2% Private Grant, 9% Community Service Block Grant Funds, 45% Corporation for National and Community Service, 1% Private Grants, 4% United Way.

Community Development: (Expenses $6,292,022 with Grants of $4,602) (Revenues $7,219,983)

HRDC's Community Development Initiative provides innovative and creative solutions to identified community needs. Public Transportation, Homebuyer education and down payment assistance, as well as construction of affordable housing are results of the community strategic planning process that HRDC conducts every five years. Finding resources to maintain existing services that are identified as vital to the community is also part of the Community Development initiative. This year's specific outcome includes construction of a 36 unit condominium structure available for purchase to households previously priced out of Bozeman's housing market. The goal is to build and sustain healthy communities through the construction of housing and community facilities and the development of community programs that educate and support families and individuals.

Community development comprised 46% of the agencies activities and expenditures and is currently funded at 9% Community Service Block Grant Funds, 1% Rural Local Initiative Support Coalition and Northwest Area Foundation, and 90% Neighborhood Stabilization Program Funds.

Note: The above expenses and revenues include the activity of the HRDC wholly owned subsidiaries which are eliminated for totals for the Form 990 tax returns.

I further declare that the amount in Part I above is the amount shown on the copy of the organization's electronic return. I consent to allow my intermediate service provider, transmitter, or electronic return originator (ERO) to send the organization's return to the IRS and to receive from the IRS (a) an acknowledgement of receipt or reason for rejection of the transmission, (b) the reason for any delay in processing the return or refund, and (c) the date of any refund. If applicable, I authorize the U.S. Treasury and its designated Financial Agent to initiate an electronic funds withdrawal (direct debit) entry to the financial institution account indicated in the tax preparation software for payment of the organization's federal taxes owed on this return, and the financial institution to debit the entry to this account. To revoke a payment, I must contact the U.S. Treasury Financial Agent at 1-888-353-4537 no later than 2 business days prior to the payment (settlement) date. I also authorize the financial institutions involved in the processing of the electronic payment of taxes to receive confidential information necessary to answer inquiries and resolve issues related to the payment. I have selected a personal identification number (PIN) as my signature for the organization's electronic return and, if applicable, the organization's consent to electronic funds withdrawal.
